JOBS FOR AMERICA'S GRADUATES

WHAT IS THE CAREER DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE?

The Career Development Conference is an opportunity for JAG students to demonstrate the personal, leadership, and employability skills they have developed through involvement in the program. JAG students participate in competitions and workshops to provide a vehicle for recognition and achievement.

JOBS FOR AMERICA'S GRADUATES

INDIANA PROGRAMS EST. IN 2006

After nearly four decades of operation, the Jobs for America's Graduates program has proven to be one of the most cost-effective and successful state-level strategies for tackling high dropout rates, low academic performance, youth unemployment, and other critical issues facing youth. Participants actively engage in career exploration, goal setting and leadership development as they plan for their future and transition to post-secondary education and/or the labor market.

TOP 10 ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA
