

In his role as the Student Recruiter & Outreach Specialist for our K-12 Department and programs, Isaiah Holmes' responsibilities include collaborating and planning directly with our partnering schools' counselors and career coordinators. He will develop unique recruiting strategies in effort to increase awareness and enrollment for all our K-12 programs. Isaiah is a native of Wichita Falls, Texas. He is one son out of four children and has resided in Indianapolis since 2015. He has a strong passion for empowering and informing marginalized citizens and has dedicated his energy to promoting upward mobility through networking, informing, and supporting our local youth. Isaiah comes to EmployIndy with more than four years of experience, having served the Indianapolis Public Schools district and recent involvement with 100 Black Men of Indianapolis, TeenWorks, Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center and JAG. Isaiah attended DePauw University and is currently enrolled at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) majoring in Civic Leadership.

