About Project SEARCH

Project SEARCH is a unique business-led internship program designed for young adults with disabilities who desire to be employed but would benefit from career exploration. The cornerstone of this one-school-year program is immersion into a large business or organization. Community Hospital East and Community Hospital North have hosted the Easterseals Crossroads Project SEARCH program since 2008. The interns learn employability and job skills while participating in a variety of worksite rotations often leading to competitive employment. Individualized job development and placement occur based on an intern's experiences, strengths and skills. Interns are given support with accommodations, adaptations and on-the-job coaching. Upon completion of the program, interns are prepared to enter the workforce.
